Class Prophecy

My name is YVONNE HUTCHINS. I am a French correspondent for the New York Times. One afternoon late last summer, I decided to take a walk in the surrounding hills. Suddenly I noticed one of those freakish summer storms beginning to brew, so I made a dash for the nearest means of shelter. This shelter proved to be a small dark cave. The cave was not nearly so dark as I first thought it to be, for inside it contained a crackling fire with a kettle hanging over it. A weird looking prophetess was bending over this kettle chanting to herself.

She appeared to give me no notice, but continued to mumble and chant over the boiling brew.

"What do you brew, old woman?" I asked.

"The future, my lady," she cackled. "Do you wish to hear?"

"Yes," I said eagerly and drew up a seat.

"First, I see in the smoking haze, Senator GAITHER SANFORD awarding the Certificate of Merit to marine heroes TENNYSON ANDERSON, ROBERT MABE, and FLOYD GREENE. Photographers MELVER CULLER and BONNIE SHAW are taking pictures of this memorial event."

"The scene shifts to J. T. SMITH'S T. V. Enterprises. Inside the portals I see BETTY JO FOSTER starring in the BOB KIGER musical review. ANNE RICHARDSON, script girl, is standing by to prompt in case the star forgets. Cameramen GRADY WHITE and EVERETTE GLASSCOCK roll the cameras forward for a close-up of NANCY BATES demonstrating GLEEM toothpaste."

A sudden shift in the wind made the fire blaze brightly. The old woman's face glowed briefly as she beheld in the smoke a small county seat town in

Davie County. "Mayor HENRY SHUTT is walking stately down the street. He is pausing for a minute to chat with housewife JO ANN GAITHER (RATLEDGE) and her six children. BAILEY WALKER, proprietor of Mocksville's largest theater is calling a cheery 'good morning' to his neighbors across the street, Mr. and Mrs. KENNETH HOWELL (the former JULIA ALLEN), owners of Howell Department Store."

"I see," the old woman mumbled, "Farmer TOM WHITAKER in town showing his ten pound pumpkin to editor LYNDIA JEAN CRAWFORD."

"Mayor Shutt continues to saunter down the street only to be half knocked down by Veterinarian JIMMY KELLY as he rushes to the aid of HARRIET TUTTROW'S prize Persian Cat. Miss HELEN LAIRD, as she is hurrying to her job as home economics teacher at Mocksville Consolidated High School, waves a quick hello to nurse CAROLYN REAVIS."

"And now my dear lady I see a large hotel in Miami where the National Beta Club is holding its 1971 Convention. On the terrace Miss JUNE GREEN, national director, is chatting with PATRICIA SMITH, vice president. Former members of the Mocksville Beta Club, NANCY REAVIS, DORIS McDANIEL, and MOLLY WATERS are honorary guests. Miss LINDA OWINGS is guest speaker."

"Mesdames J. C. Rockefeller and S. D. Woolworth, formerly Misses HAZEL CLEMENT and PEGGY HARRIS of Mocksville are breezing by in their jet Oldsmobiles."

"Mr. BILLY SELL, owner of Sell Furniture Company, just back from a deep sea fishing trip with Miami Hotel Proprietor HOMER REEVES, is coming up the beach."

"Miss JOAN SMITH, New York's most famous model is being interviewed by reporter FAYE WILSON. Miss Smith is presenting Miss PATTY TAYLOR'S fall collection of latest designs."

A gush of rain sizzles the fire momentarily. Then it blazes up again brightly bringing to the old woman's eyes the Annual Masonic Picnic. She whispered, "Ah, there are housewives LOIS MAE WHITAKER, REBECCA CANTER, GERALDINE WHITE and JANICE SMITH, bringing well-filled baskets. Their old classmate, JOHNNY ETCHISON is greeting them at the ticket gate. Coming in behind them is Doctor GAIL WALKER. Mr. Etchison glimpses famous New York hair stylist ERMON BEAUCHAMP, out in the crowd. Talking to her is CAROL MILLER just back from Paris where she starred in Director DONALD ALLEN'S latest movie. Columnist SARAH MARSHALL is predicting that Carol will be an Academy Award winner next year."

"Another old friend coming up to join the group is National 4-H Director ALTON SHEEK. He is telling them about BOBBY TALBERT and BILLY O'NEAL winning the National Cattle judging contest in Chicago."

The old woman paused momentarily, then her voice drove on. "I see clear, blue skies, an open plain and a brown clad group of hunters. They are the members of ONA GREY ROBERTSON'S all-woman safari. These daring adventurers are the Misses MARCIA LAGLE, SHELBY RICHARDSON and LOUISE KEATON. JEANETTE BUTNER is keeping a journal of the trip and MARY ALICE BOGER is taking movie scenes which will be released by MORGAN CHAFFIN'S film productions. Returning to Paris by plane from their African trip they are greeted by stewardesses KATHLEEN GAITHER and BETTY LOU EDWARDS. Two other distinguished passengers on the plane are United Nation's Ambassadors to France, CHRISTINE BEAUCHAMP and COLENE BLACKWELDER."

The old woman paused: "That is all." As I left the cave and walked home, I WONDERED!

Yvonne Hutchins, Prophetess

Class History

In late August '52 almost one hundred twenty-five pupils started their first year in Mocksville High School. We had several new students, most of whom were from Smith Grove.

After we as freshmen settled down, we elected Gaither Sanford as president to lead us through the troubles and trials which would come our way.

On the Student Council representing us as freshmen were Harriet Tutterow, Molly Waters, and Henry Shutt. These students helped with the writing of the constitution. About the only other important thing we did that year was to elect our Halloween king and queen. This honor was placed upon Johnny Etchison and Betty Jo Foster. We used a Hawaiian theme for our float, and even though our float didn't win, Betty Jo was crowned Queen!

That spring we chose Billy Sell and Betty Jo Foster to attend the Junior and Senior Banquet.

The next fall a few less students answered the sophomore roll call, but we still had the largest class in school.

For various reasons we didn't elect a class president, but somehow we got through. We nominated Bailey Walker and Katherine Plott as our candidates for the Halloween Carnival. That year we used "Sitting on Top of the World" as our theme for the float. It didn't win first prize—only second! Yvonne Hutchins won first prize for the best individual costume.

Giving expert advice to the Student Council were Molly Waters and Gaither Sanford from our sophomore class.

Then Banquet time came. We chose Patty Taylor and Henry Shutt to have the honor of attending this event which was held at the Woman's Club in Thomasville. After a few more weeks of school, we adjourned for the summer.

Another summer passed very quickly, and in the fall of '54 an inspired group of juniors settled down to work. First was the R. E. A. picnic, an annual affair at which the juniors are privileged to sell refreshments. We elected Gaither Sanford as chairman of this important project; later he became class president. All of us did a good bit of back-breaking labor that beautiful day in the concession stand, but it was worth it. We cleared over three hundred and twenty-five dollars.

As Halloween approached, the class elected Patty Taylor and Billy Sell as our Halloween king and queen. Our theme for the float was "United Nations". The float didn't win, but Billy was crowned King of the Carnival!

Jimmy Kelly and Kenneth Howell helped give aid to the Student Council that year.

Billy Sell was awarded the most valuable football player of '54 from Mocksville High.

Soon after Christmas we started work on our banquet. We took a trip to New York to be present at the Stork Club, (in reality the Vance Hotel, Statesville). Gaither Sanford, class president, served as Master of Ceremonies. Many talented members of our class participated in a musical program making this a memorable occasion.

Later that spring our first major attempt in acting was presented in the High School Auditorium. Peck's Bad Boy, a three act comedy by Charles George was well received, and we were sure our efforts had not been in vain.

One of the most exciting and thrilling time of the year was in May when we ordered our class rings. We chose black stones with the wildcat seal on one side and the state seal on the other.

Instead of waiting until the senior year to select the 1955-56 Student Council president, we decided to elect him the last of the junior year. The by-laws were changed and the election took place. Billy Sell was elected president of the Student Council, with Henry Shutt as Vice-President.

The faculty chose Lynda Crawford and Betty Edwards to attend Girls' State, which was held at Woman's College, and Gaither Sanford to attend Boys' State at Raleigh. May brought a close to one of our most enjoyable school years.

Then we were Seniors!

How did we feel as we entered the doors of high school for the last year? There was a little sadness as we remembered all the things we would do no more, but the joy of graduating will more than make up for what we miss.

We elected Henry Shutt to be our efficient class president. To help Student Council President Billy Sell, we nominated Bob Kiger and Kenneth Howell.

For our Halloween float we chose "Peter Pumpkin Eater" as our theme with the king and queen candidates, J. T. Smith and Carol Miller, riding in the pumpkin. The float won second prize.

As we the seniors of '56 look back over the four long years of high school, a lot of "if's" crowd our mind. As we look into the future we see a bright or gloomy tomorrow, but whatever the tide may bring, we shall make the best of it.

Last Will and Testament

We, the members of the Senior Class of nineteen hundred fifty-six, of the city of Mocksville, state of North Carolina, being of sound mind, and realizing that we are about to depart from this place, do therefore make, ordain, publish, and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.

I, Donald Gaston Allen, will my title of "most dignified" to Lester Allen. Don't become conceited, Lester.

I, Julia Marie Allen, bequeath my friendly and pleasant smile to my sister, Louise. May she be as happy as I have been with it.

I, Tennyson Franklin Anderson, leave to Joe Gobble my seat in Biology. Do not abuse it.

I, Nancy Carolyn Bates, will my nickname, "Shorty" to Barbara Ferebee.

I, Lillie Christine Beauchamp, bequeath my position as bus driver of No. 25 to anyone who can stand those noisy kids.

I, Mary Ermon Beauchamp, will my interests in book-keeping to Judy Laird.

I, Sarah Coleen Blackwelder, leave my giggles to Wanda Gobble although she has enough of her own.

I, Mary Alice Boger, bequeath my height to Floretta Collete if she wishes to use it.

I, Nancy Jeanette Butner, will my love for Virginia to anyone who has a friend there.

I, Rebecca Anne Canter, leave to Ruth Greene my pretty brown eyes and all my friendly ways.

I, Abner Morgan Chaffin, will my height to Walker Stickney unless he is as tall as I am when he becomes a Senior.

I, Hazel Annette Clement, bequeath my ability to leave school at lunch to my sister, Martha.

I, Lynda Jean Crawford, leave my cheerful disposition and pleasing personality to Carmen Rice to combine with hers.

I, Melver Lee Culler, will my desire for graduation time to come to Denny Rollins.

I, Betty Lou Edwards, bequeath all my interests in school work and my studious ways to Sylvia Stroud.

I, John Walter Etchison, will my ability to make good grades to Jerry Reavis.

I, Betty Jo Foster, leave my ability to miss school a lot and make good grades to Dallas Groce.

I, Mary Jo Ann Gaither, will my faithfulness to my boyfriend who is away working, to anyone who is as unfortunate as this.

I, Kathleen Chrystal Gaither, leave my ability to stay away from Cooleemee to anyone who needs to take advantage of it.

I, Marshall Everette Glasscock, leave my place in agriculture class to Amos Brown.

I, Floyd Eugene Greene, bequeath my title as wittiest of the Senior Class to Joe Brown.

I, Violet June Green, will to Emma Jo Pope my daily task of fixing the newspapers on the rack in the library.

I, Peggie Dean Harris, bequeath my saying, "I smell flowers; here comes Rosebud," to Elsie Dean Johnson.

I, Kenneth Wayne Howell, leave my baseball outfit to Mackie Deadmon.

I, Yvonne Hutchins, leave my 4H awards to anyone who has the patience to work for them as I did.

I, Lettie Louise Keaton, will my quiet ways to Jo Ann Frye.

I, James Edward Kelly, Jr., will my position on the football team to anyone who will work hard for it.

I, William Robert Kiger, leave my black wavy hair to Gene Plott to mix with his red.

I, Marcia Ailene Lagle, will my ability to date different boys to whoever likes to have fun.

I, Helen Virginia Laird, will my quiet ways to Audrey Bailey. This should please the teachers.

I, James Robert Mabe, will my interests in ninth grade girls, especially one, to Bill Collette.

I, Sarah Edyth Marshall, will my happy-go-lucky ways to Barbara Ann Hendrix to combine with her own.

I, Doris Carolyn McDaniel, bequeath my position on the basketball team to my sister Lorraine if she will do her best.

R^{eflections}

● Almost a quarter of a century has passed since USECO published its first school annual. As we review those pages of yesteryear, a pleasant thought comes to mind—on some tomorrow this, the nineteen hundred and fifty-six edition, will take its place in your heart as a pictorial history of the "good ole' days."

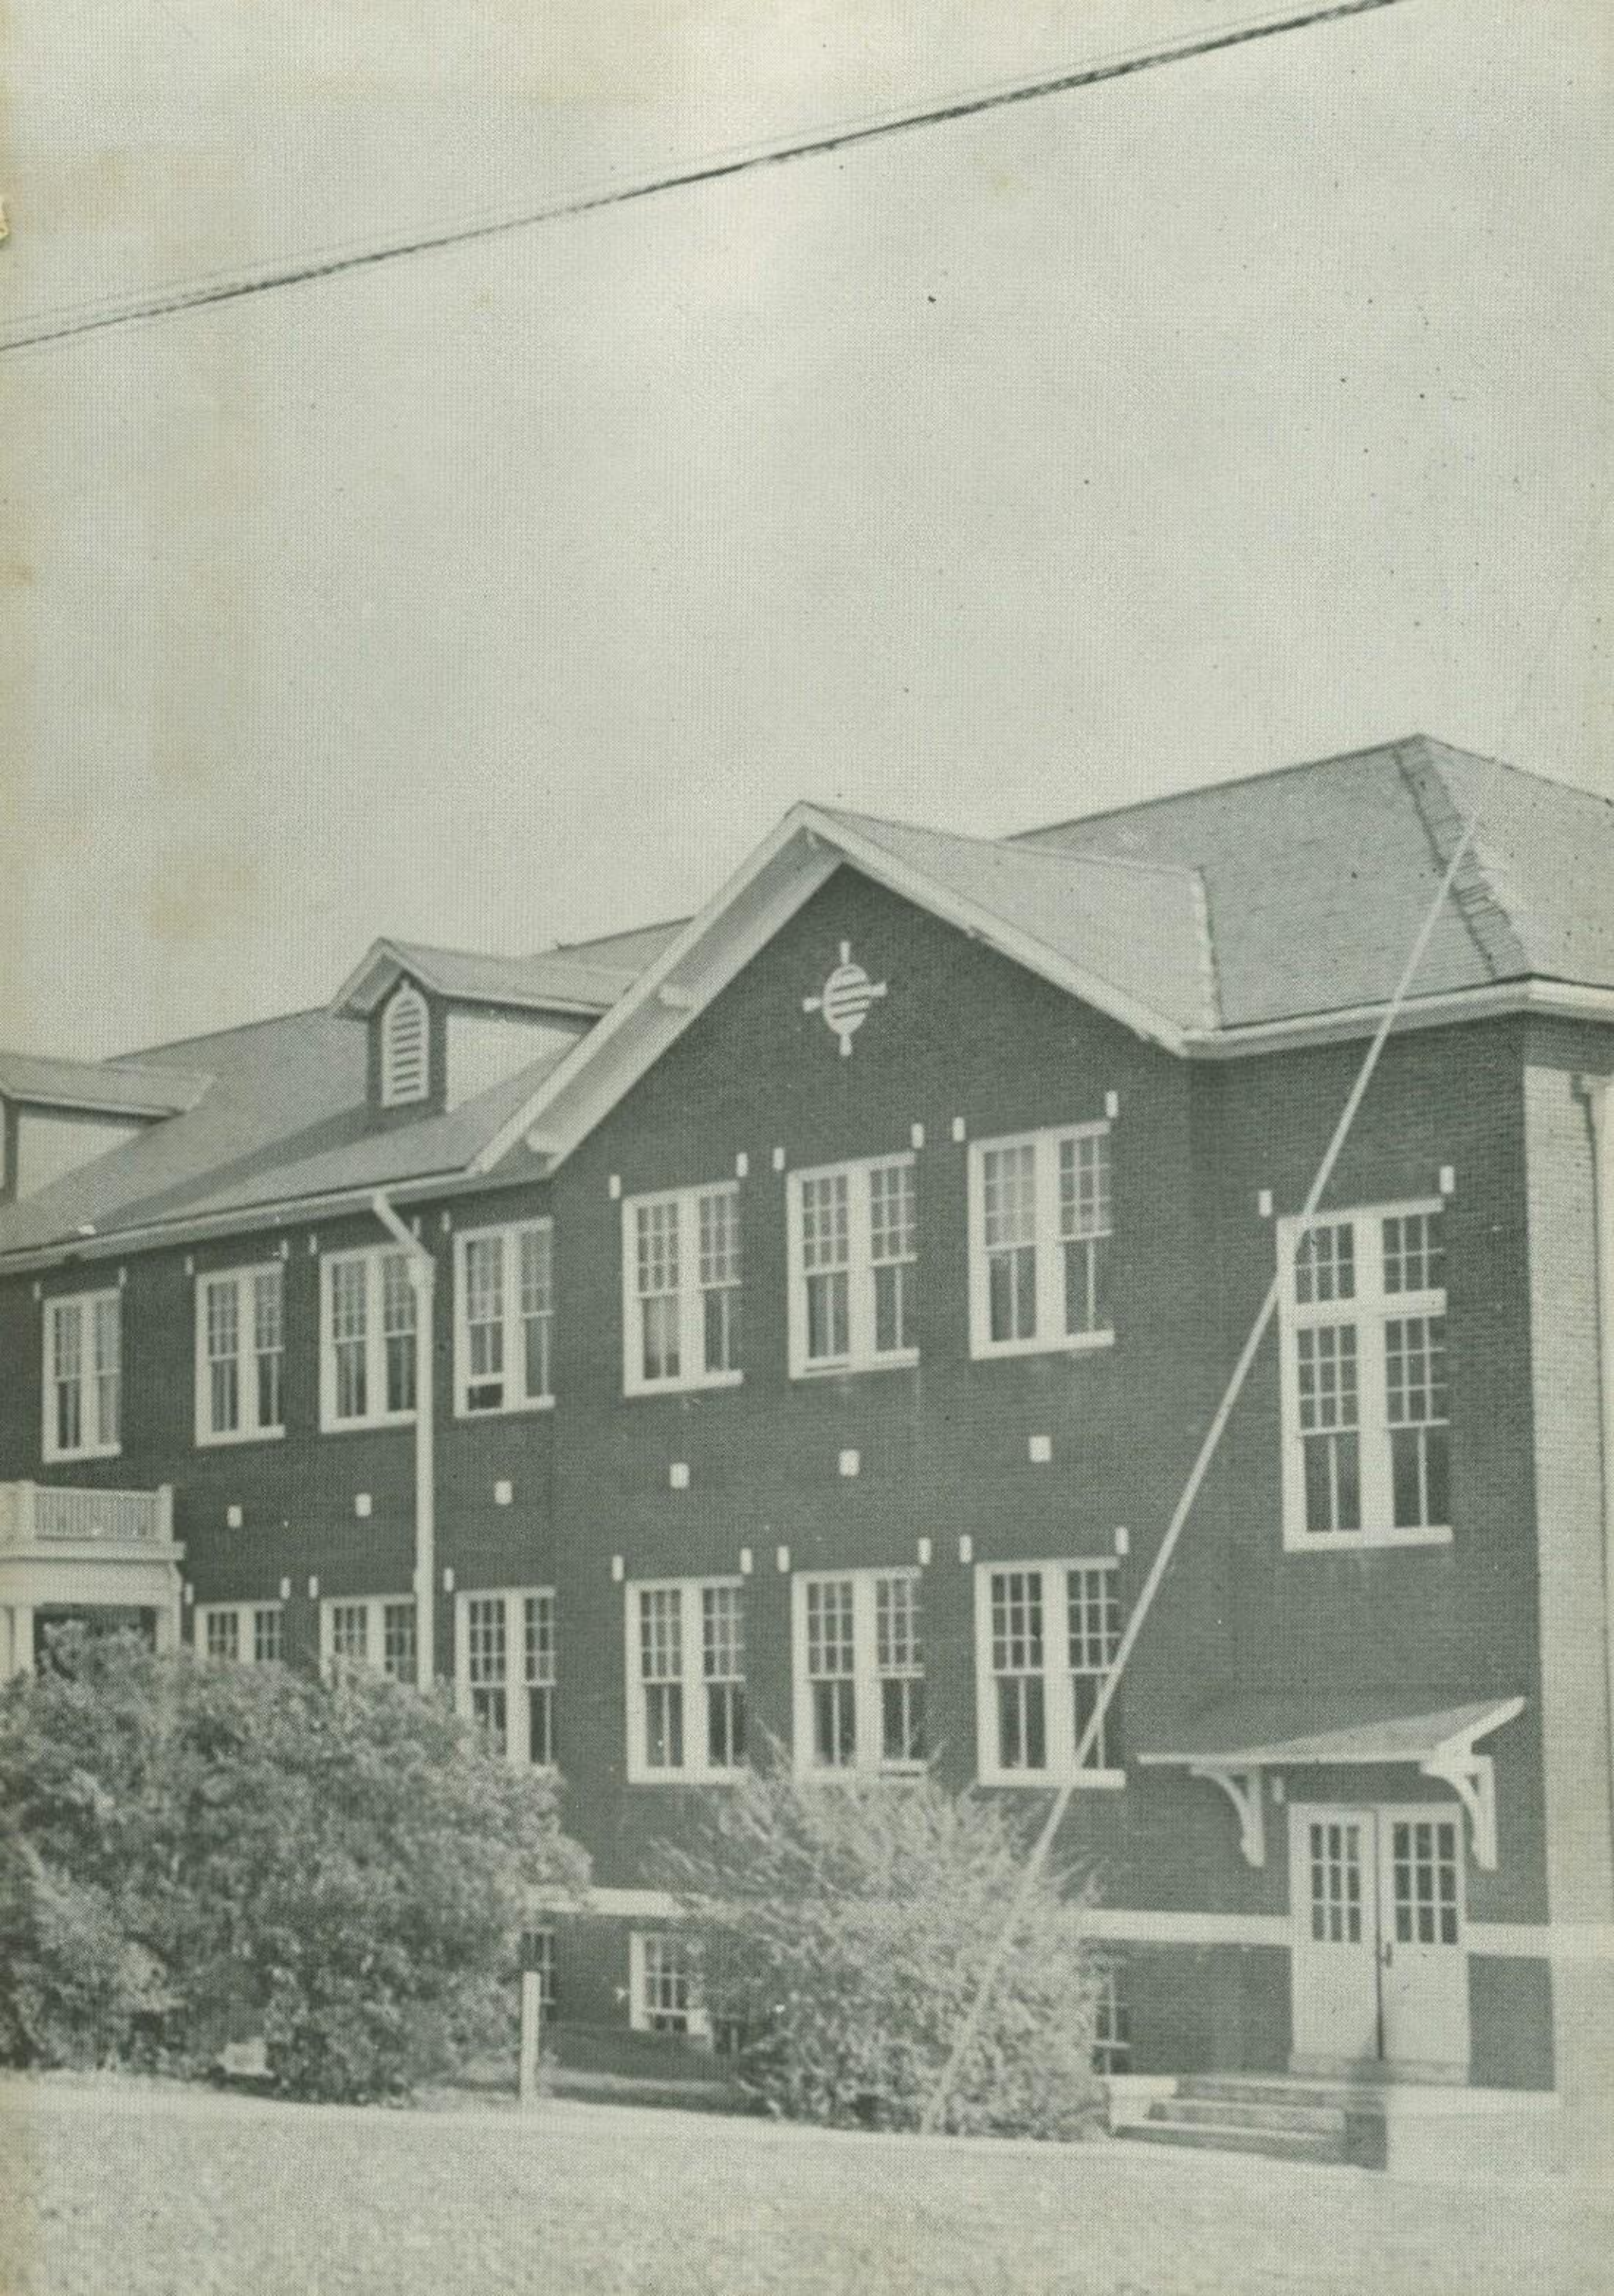

We know this book will increase in value with the passing of each year, and are honored to have played a part in recording it.
